Each module has a list of core texts and recommended readings which are listed in the module reading list and module handbooks (available to you after registration). Below is a list for first semester modules to get you started. Second semester reading lists will be advertised at the start of the second semester, but the books listed below will be relevant for the whole of your first year and beyond.

It is not necessary to purchase these books and there is no expectation on students to do so - copies are available in the University Library and via our catalogue Primo: primo.aber.ac.uk
